Data Sharing Guidelines:
National AIDS Control Organisation

July, 2015
Data Sharing Guidelines:

Background: National AIDS Control Organisation, Department of Health & Family Welfare, GOI collects data on components related to HIV/AIDS through various mechanisms including routine monitoring, sentinel surveillance systems, Behavioral Surveillance surveys and other evaluations / operations research studies. The main objectives of this information collection through integrated M&E system are to track the progress of HIV/AIDS epidemic in the country and to track performance of National AIDS Control Program.

The data collected through these mechanisms is used for various purposes including program management, resource allocation and taking corrective decisions.

Purpose of Data Sharing Policy: The data collected varies from inventory information to patient disease details. With web-enable, the data can be made available through internet at all levels and to all partners who are involved. The data transfer is gradually shifting from sequential (RU→District→State→National) transfer to direct web transfer so that information is available to all simultaneously. Adequate measures for data security are in place for restricting access by giving various levels of permission. However, due to stigma associated with HIV/AIDS, maintenance of confidentiality is crucial for security and confidence of HIV patients.

Involvement of large number of organizations ranging from government, semi-government, private, civil society, and many more in fighting against HIV/AIDS and interest and support of large number of donors and stakeholders emphasizes need of transparency and availability of data to all those who are involved in the program related to HIV/AIDS. Post graduate and PhD student/scholar, who want to do research in HIV/AIDS field, also give request for data access. The approaches and implementation strategies being adopted by programme pose several operations research questions and researchers in constant need to add to the existing knowledge or create new knowledge require information. The information needs thus vary according to levels and area of work. Looking at the stigma and discrimination faced by HIV infected person and keeping the confidentiality at forefront, there is need to use this data with utmost caution and maturity. Considering the above, this Guideline has been developed.

Following matrix gives broad guidelines of data sharing:

Key Protocols:

1. For all data collected through National AIDS Control Program (NACP), NACO/SACS is the custodian. Data in all forms, the standard tables, reports as well as raw data will be under the custody of NACO/SACS.

2. All agencies supporting NACO in data generation through various processes including routine monitoring, surveillance or surveys should handover complete data sets to NACO after completion of the process/reports.

3. Individual, agency, Organisation who access to the data of the National AIDS Control Programme, have to submit the data request in the prescribed format (Annex-1) with clearly defined purpose and clear details of the data that is required.

4. The applicant will also have to sign an undertaking (Annex-2) with NACO/SACS, assuring maintenance of data confidentiality, avoiding conflict of interest, acknowledgement of NACO/SACS in the publication.

5. The applicant should submit detailed protocol of the study along with data request form; protocol should give objectives, methods, analysis framework that is proposed to be used in the analysis and implications of the analysis/study for the programme.

6. In order to simplify the procedure for many students who seek data from the programme for their thesis work, the applicants are categorized as below.
   I. Students seeking data for his/her Graduate/Post Graduate thesis work
   II. Doctoral students seeking data for his/her PhD thesis
   III. All other applicants, other than students

7. If the applicant is seeking data for his/her Graduate/Post Graduate thesis,
   I. If the data required (accessing available data/generating fresh data through interviews of beneficiaries) is limited to one or two reporting units/centres, the student can collect the data from the centre subject to following conditions.
      i. He/she should have obtained necessary ethical clearance from his/her institutional review board, for the thesis.
      ii. He/she should obtain permission from the in-charge of the Reporting Unit/Centre.
      iii. He/she should intimate SACS & NACO about the study before starting data collection.
      iv. He/she should seek permission from NACO before publishing any report or paper using data under National AIDS Control Programme.

In this case, it is also the duty of In-charge of the RU/centre to inform SACS & NACO about such study along with details of the student and the data being accessed.
II.  If the data required relates to district or higher level (either aggregate data or individual data) that is collected through CMIS/SIMS or any other data collection/reporting mechanism under NACP, the student should approach SACS/NACO with data request. In such a case, the protocol as given in table above will be followed.

8. If the applicant is seeking data for his/her PhD thesis, he/she should approach SACS/NACO with data request, irrespective of which level of data he/she is seeking (facility level/district/state/national). In such a case, the protocol as given in table above will be followed.

9. All other applicants should also approach SACS/NACO with data request for obtaining any data from NACP.

10. All the data requests will be examined by M&E Division at NACO and depending on the category of data requested, it will be referred either to concerned HOD or Data Sharing Committee of NACO, for their review, as per the protocol given in the table above.

11. Data sharing committee shall review the data requests based on the following criteria, give its recommendations and submit for approval of Competent, NACO.

   I. Whether the topic for analysis is in line with the priorities for analysis & research of NACO

   II. Any possible conflict of interest situation with the applicant, due to his/her organizational or institutional affiliation

   III. Whether the applicant has obtained the necessary clearances from required Institutional Review Boards/Ethics Committees

12. Personal information will be filtered to conceal identity of individuals from any raw data which is to be shared.

13. Data will be shared with the applicant only after the approval of Secretary, NACO. Instructions will be given to concerned programme division of NACO/SACS to provide the information.
