Striding Ahead

Keeping The Promise

National AIDS Control Programme III (2007-2012) is working to halt and reverse the HIV/AIDS epidemic in India. The Red Ribbon Express has completed its 27,000 kilometer long journey to spread awareness across the length and breadth of India. It halted at 180 stations in 24 states and reached out to over 62 lakh people with messages, over 1.1 lakh people have been counselled and about 68000 resource persons trained.

But this is not the only achievement!

Since July 2007 Prevention has been upscaled...

- ⌘ 5100 new Condom Vending Machines (CVMs) installed taking the total number of CVMs to 16125 across the country
- ⌘ 797 million condoms socially marketed
- ⌘ Voluntary blood donation increased from 56.4% in July 2007 to 59.1% in November, 2008
- ⌘ Sero reactivity amongst blood donors decreased from 0.36% in July 2007 to 0.34% in November, 2008
- ⌘ 572 new Integrated Counselling and Testing Centres (ICTCs) established - bringing the total number of ICTCs to 4817
- ⌘ 10.55 million HIV tests conducted
- ⌘ 4.74 million pregnant women tested and over 10,000 HIV positive mothers provided with prophylactic treatment

Access to Treatment for People Living with HIV increased...

- ⌘ 54 new Antiretroviral Therapy (ART) Centres established bringing the total number of ART centres to 181
- ⌘ 1,02,203 new HIV positive adults and 6,844 HIV positive children initiated on ART taking the total number of HIV positive people currently on ART to 1,88,118

And much more...
